Cover Note for Revised Manuscript

THE ACTUAL PAPER FOLLOWS THIS COVER NOTE.

Paper ID	:	xxxx
Title	:	An example paper
Venue	:	VLDB 2046

We thank the reviewers for their careful review of our paper and the informative comments that help us improve the paper. We tried our best to revise the submission by addressing all the comments. Below we respond the technique issues raised by each reviewer in a point-by-point fashion, and summarize our major revisions at the end.

Notations: "R" is short for reviewer. "W" represents the weak point and "D" stands for the detailed comment.

Editor

Comments: Overall, reviewers believe this paper addresses an interesting problem and presents relevant solutions. The authors are asked to address comments given in the reviews.

Response. We thank the editor for your helpful comments. We have addressed all the detailed comments from the reviewers in this revised draft.

Reviewer 1

W1: There are many grammatical errors. If the paper is accepted, I would urge the authors to revise the paper closely to fix them.
D2: The paper needs to be proof-read carefully.

Response. The revised manuscript has been carefully polished.

Reviewer 2

W1: There are many grammatical errors. If the paper is accepted, I would urge the authors to revise the paper closely to fix them.
D2: The paper needs to be proof-read carefully.

Response. The revised manuscript has been carefully polished.

Reviewer 3

W1: There are many grammatical errors. If the paper is accepted, I would urge the authors to revise the paper closely to fix them.
D2: The paper needs to be proof-read carefully.

Response. The revised manuscript has been carefully polished.

If the system only allow to upload one single file, attach your updated draft at the end.