Application for a position in the Research Department

Dear Mrs. Abc,

Hereby I wish to apply for a position at the Research Department of Employer Research in London.

Following a general interest in economic affairs, I studied General Economics in Germany. I finished my studies in three years, graduated as best of class and received the Albert-Einstein award for re-inventing the weel. Etcetcetc.

Working as an intern at the Beployer Research company I realized that I am truely interested in economic research. I have decided to apply at Employer Research in London, as ...

Please do not hesitate to contact me if details regarding my CV or this application letter are unclear.

Yours sincerely,

Philipp Maier
